  - 9) if there are significant breaches of the duties of the Supervisory Board members,
  - 10) when there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a money laundering or terrorist financing offence has been or is being committed or attempted in connection with an act or omission of certain members of the body, or that there is a higher risk of such an offence being committed in connection with the Bank's activities, in particular in situations where the Bank:

- i. has not put in place adequate internal controls or oversight mechanisms to monitor and mitigate AML/CFT risks (e.g. identified through surveillance carried out as part of on-site or off-site inspections, supervisory dialogue or in the context of sanctions);*
- ii. has been found to be in breach of its AML/CFT obligations at home or abroad; or*
- iii. has materially changed its business activities or business model in a way that suggests that its exposure to money laundering/terrorist financing risks has significantly increased;*

6. The Bank assesses the collective suitability of the Supervisory Board each time:

- 1) before appointing the composition of a Bank's body to a new term of office (regardless of whether the composition of that body is the same or not),
- 2) before communicating an intention to acquire a qualifying block of shares of a supervised entity or to become its parent entity (in the event of planned changes in the composition of the bodies),
- 3) in the event of a change in the division of competences in the Supervisory Board (including in terms of participation of its members in the Bank's committees),
- 4) before any changes are made to the composition of the Bank's Supervisory Board, in particular the appointment, dismissal, resignation or suspension of its member (or immediately thereafter if, for reasons beyond the Bank's control, it has not been possible to carry out a suitability assessment in advance - e.g. if a member of the Supervisory Board resigns with immediate effect),
- 5) when there is a material change to the Bank's business model, risk appetite or strategy or structure at the individual level or at the Alior Bank Group level,
- 6) when there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a money laundering or terrorist financing offence has been or is being committed or attempted in connection with an act or omission of certain bodies of the Bank, or there is a higher risk of such an offence being committed in connection with the Bank's activities, in particular in situations where the Bank:
  - i. has not put in place adequate internal controls or oversight mechanisms to monitor and mitigate AML/CFT risks (e.g. identified through surveillance carried out as part of on-site or off-site inspections, supervisory dialogue or in the context of sanctions);*
  - ii. has been found to be in breach of its AML/CFT obligations at home or abroad; or*
  - iii. has materially changed its business activities or business model in a way that suggests that its exposure to money laundering/terrorist financing risks has significantly increased.*
- 7) in the event of new circumstances which may affect the assessment of collective suitability of the members of the Supervisory Board,
- 8) as part of inspection/review of the PCG,
- 9) in the event of a material change in the assessment of the suitability of individual members of the Supervisory Board,
- 10) at the time of appointment and any change in the composition of the Audit Committee, in terms of whether an adequate number of its members meet the criteria of independence as well as knowledge and skills in the field of accounting or auditing (i.e. compliance with the rules on the appointment and composition of the Audit Committee),

- 11) each time a Supervisory Board is entrusted in gremio with the function of an Audit Committee – to verify whether the relevant number of its members meet the independence criteria and have knowledge and skills in accounting and examination of financial statements.
7. If there is more than one premise of the suitability assessment referred to in this paragraph at the same time, the suitability assessment may be carried out once.

§ 7.

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

1. The basic criteria for assessing suitability include:
  - 1) knowledge level, including education, training, titles and qualifications/degrees, in particular:
    - a) REQUIRED HIGHER EDUCATION,
    - b) expected directional education (field of study related to the financial services sector, in particular in the field of banking and finance, economics, law, accounting, auditing, administration, financial regulations, information technology, and quantitative methods),
  - 2) the skills necessary for the performance of the function entrusted (both “hard” skills, resulting directly from the education and experience possessed, and “soft” skills, necessary for the management of the institution),
  - 3) professional experience, including performing a managerial or supervisory function in the past, and specialisation in relevant areas for the Bank’s operations, including in particular:
    - a) at least 60 months of professional experience, in principle in positions related to the financial services sector, in particular in financial institutions,
    - b) at least 36 months of experience in managerial positions, either as part of the management body or directly reporting to it;
  - 4) reputation, integrity and ethics, independence of judgement and absence of a conflict of interest,
  - 5) devoting enough time to perform the duties of a Supervisory Board member,
  - 6) knowledge of the Polish language,
  - 7) non-criminal record, reputation and financial situation (current and past, examined in terms of susceptibility to possible pressure or increasing willingness to accept excessive risk),
  - 8) other relevant criteria for the Supervisory Board’s operations as the body, including activities in the Bank’s interest.
2. Suitability is also assessed in terms of the number of functions that a member of the Supervisory Board may perform simultaneously, in accordance with Article 22aa sections 2 to 6 of the Banking Law Act, according to which:
  - 1) the number of functions of a management board or supervisory board member performed simultaneously by a Supervisory Board member should depend on individual circumstances and the nature, scale, and degree of complexity of the Bank’s operations;
  - 2) a Supervisory Board member may perform simultaneously no more than one function of a management board member and two functions of a supervisory board member, or four functions of a supervisory board member, provided that the above limitation does not apply to functions

performed by a Supervisory Board member in non-business entities economic, as well as to persons representing the State Treasury in the Supervisory Board,

3) one function is regarded as:

a) functions of a management board or supervisory board member performed in entities belonging to the same capital group within the meaning of Article 3.1.44 of the Accounting Act of 29 September 1994;

b) functions of a member of the Supervisory Board performed in:

i. entities covered by the same institutional protection system that meet the conditions referred to in Article 113.7 of the CRR, or

ii. entities in which the Bank holds a significant block of shares referred to in Article 4.1.36 of the CRR.

3. When assessing the suitability of a member of the Supervisory Board, account is also taken of the fulfilment of the requirements referred to in Article 111(6b) of the Act on Trading, according to which members of the Supervisory Board of a bank conducting brokerage activities may not be persons found guilty by a valid court decision of a tax offence, an offence against document reliability, property, economic turnover, money and securities trading, crimes or offences specified in Article 305, Article 307 or Article 308 of the Act of 30 June 2000 - Industrial Property Law, or an offence specified in the laws referred to in Article 1(2) of the Act of 21 July 2006 on Financial Market Supervision and an offence constituting an infringement of equivalent provisions in force in other Member States.

4. When assessing Supervisory Board members' suitability, the requirement of meeting the independence criteria is taken into account by at least two Supervisory Board members, pursuant to § 18 section 4 of the Bank's Articles of Association in conjunction with Article 129 section 3 of the Act on Statutory Auditors.

5. In the banking sector, without prejudice to the presumption of innocence applicable in criminal proceedings and other fundamental rights, at least the following circumstances are taken into account in the assessment process:

(a) convictions or pending criminal proceedings, in particular relating to: offences under the laws governing banking, finance, securities, insurance, securities markets or financial or payment instruments, including laws relating to money laundering, corruption, market manipulation or insider dealing and usury; offences of dishonesty, fraud or financial crime; tax offences; other offences under the laws relating to companies, bankruptcy, insolvency or consumer protection;

(b) other relevant measures taken currently or in the past by a regulatory or professional body in relation to non-compliance with the banking, financial, securities or insurance regulations in question;

(c) cases where there is a reasonable suspicion that an offence relating to money laundering or terrorist financing (Article 165a or Article 299 of the Act of 6 June 1997 - Penal Code) has been committed using the activities of a bank, a financial holding company or a mixed financial holding company, a reasonable suspicion of an attempt to commit that offence or the existence of an increased risk of committing that offence.

6. The assessment of collective suitability should also assess whether the authority, through its decisions, has demonstrated a sufficient understanding of the money laundering/terrorist financing risks and how they affect the institution's activities, and whether it has adequately managed those risks, including corrective measures where appropriate.

PRIMARY ASSESSMENT OF THE SUITABILITY OF A CANDIDATE FOR A SUPERVISORY BOARD MEMBER

1. The primary suitability of candidates to the Supervisory Board of the Bank is assessed by the Shareholder.
2. The expected level of competencies is specified in Appendix 1.
3. The assessment should be carried out in the first place by completing the forms by the candidate and subsequently by the shareholder – according to the current statement for the PFSA Methodology, which are made available to shareholders along with materials for the General Meeting.
4. Candidacy for the Supervisory Board is presented in accordance with the provisions of the Rules and Regulations of the General Meeting. When proposing a candidacy for a Supervisory Board member, a participant in the General Meeting should present the suitability assessment result together with the candidate's CV, including, in particular, the candidate's education and previous professional experience.
5. The participant in the General Meeting proposing a candidacy for a Supervisory Board member should provide an exhausting justification. In preparing the justification, the participant of the General Meeting assesses the individual suitability of the candidate, taking into account the provisions of Article 22 section 2 in connection with Article 22aa of the Banking Law Act, on the basis of the forms referred to in section 3 above made available by the Bank.
6. The participant of the General Meeting presenting the candidacy provides the Bank with the completed forms referred to in (3) above.
7. The primary assessment of individual suitability is approved by the General Meeting in the form of a resolution.
8. The Expert Unit communicates the final outcome of the initial assessment of the individual suitability of the Supervisory Board candidate to the Supervisory Board.

§ 9.

SECONDARY ASSESSMENT OF THE INDIVIDUAL SUITABILITY OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD MEMBER

1. In the cases specified in § 6 section 5, the Nomination Committee decides to initiate the secondary assessment of the individual suitability of a Supervisory Board member and requests the Expert Unit to carry out the necessary actions in this regard.
2. The Expert Unit, taking into account:
  - 1) an event leading to the need for a secondary assessment of individual suitability,
  - 2) documentation of the prior assessment of the individual suitability of the member Supervisory Board- determines to what extent a secondary assessment of individual suitability should be carried out.
3. In principle, the secondary assessment of individual suitability covers the full range of criteria. However, if the need to carry out an assessment arises from:

- 1) receipt of information that a member of the Supervisory Board has been charged in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for a fiscal offence or has caused significant property damage,
- 2) new circumstances coming to light that may affect the assessment of the suitability of a member of the Supervisory Board, in particular with regard to identified cases of potential conflict of interest

- the assessment of suitability may be limited to clarifying the aforementioned circumstances.

4. The Expert Unit, taking into account the scope of the assessment of individual suitability established in the previous action, prepares a list of information and statements to be provided by the Supervisory Board member. The Expert Unit selects the appropriate forms to be completed according to the current statement for the PFSA Methodology, published on the PFSA website.
5. A Supervisory Board member prepares the information and statements indicated on the list provided by the Expert Unit. The Supervisory Board member attaches the documents indicated in the questionnaires to confirm the veracity of the information contained in them. A Supervisory Board member is obliged to present information on individual suitability assessment criteria, as long as it has not changed, has not been updated or outdated since the previous assessment. If the information from the previous suitability assessment is still valid, a Supervisory Board member may make a statement in this regard. With regard to the assessment of warranty (including a clean criminal record) and devoting sufficient time to the performance of his or her duties, a member of the Supervisory Board is required to provide complete information in each case, unless such information has been provided within the last 12 months.
6. The Expert Unit verifies whether the documents referred to in section 5 above have been completed and contain all the necessary information, including the identification of deficiencies requiring adjustment or completion, and forwards the documents to the member of the Supervisory Board for adjustment/completion.
7. The Expert Unit performs an initial assessment of the documents and information submitted by the Supervisory Board member referred to in (5) or revised/completed in accordance with (6) above. The Expert Unit documents the suitability assessment process by completing the sections in the questionnaires reserved for completion by the Bank. Afterwards, the Expert Unit provides the documentation to the Nomination Committee.
8. The Nomination Committee carries out a secondary assessment of individual suitability on the basis of the available information held on the Supervisory Board member concerned which is relevant to the assessment. A member of the Nomination Committee is not involved in their own secondary individual suitability assessment process.
9. In carrying out the secondary assessment of individual suitability, the Nomination Committee may be assisted by an external adviser.
10. The Nomination Committee prepares a recommendation on the secondary assessment of the individual suitability of the Supervisory Board member. If the result of the assessment is positive, the Nomination Committee recommends a positive assessment of the suitability of the Supervisory Board member and that he/she remain entrusted with the function of Supervisory Board member. In the event that the suitability assessment results in objections against a member of the Supervisory Board that can be removed as a result of corrective measures, the Nomination Committee may recommend such corrective measures. In the event of a negative assessment, the Nomination Committee recommends that an Extraordinary Meeting of Shareholders be convened in order to remove a Supervisory Board member from their position. The Nomination Committee communicates its recommendation to the Supervisory Board and the General Meeting.
11. The Supervisory Board reports to the PFSA on the suitability assessment carried out, its results and the decision taken.

§ 10.

COLLECTIVE SUITABILITY ASSESSMENT OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

1. In the cases specified in § 6.6, the Nomination Committee decides to initiate the assessment of the collective suitability of the Supervisory Board and requests the Expert Unit to carry out the necessary actions in this regard.
2. The Expert Unit verifies the validity of individual assessments Supervisory Board to the extent necessary to carry out a collective suitability assessment (i.e., within the scope of competences). If it is determined that at least part of the information necessary to carry out the collective suitability assessment of the Supervisory Board is not available or has become outdated, the Expert Unit proceeds to complete the missing information. If this is not the case, the Expert Unit proceeds with the primary assessment of the collective suitability of the Supervisory Board.
3. If the collective suitability assessment of the Supervisory Board results from changes in the composition of the Audit Committee, the Expert Unit obtains the candidate assessment form from the Audit Committee members or from candidates to the Audit Committee – according to the current statement of the PFSA Methodology.
4. The Expert Unit carries out the primary collective assessment of the suitability of the Supervisory Board and the Audit Committee (if necessary) and documents the assessment process by completing the Form of the Collective Assessment of the Suitability of the Supervisory Board, and in the case of assessing the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee’s collective suitability form – both according to the current statement of the PFSA Methodology. Afterwards, the Expert Unit provides the abovementioned documentation to the Nomination Committee.
5. The Nomination Committee prepares a recommendation for the Supervisory Board regarding the collective assessment of the Supervisory Board. If the assessment result is positive, the Nomination Committee issues a positive collective suitability assessment of the Supervisory Board in its current composition. If the outcome of the assessment is negative, the Nomination Committee recommends remedial measures including, in particular: adjusting the division of responsibilities among the members of the Supervisory Board, convening an Extraordinary General Meeting to complete the composition of the Supervisory Board, taking possible measures to minimise conflicts of interest or organising training for the Supervisory Board or individual members of the Supervisory Board to ensure the individual and collective suitability of this body. The Nomination Committee communicates its recommendation to the Supervisory Board.
6. The Supervisory Board carries out the collective assessment of the suitability Supervisory Board in the form of a resolution. If a vote takes place contrary to the recommendation of the Nomination Committee, the Supervisory Board should present in writing or in the form of minutes a justification of such action. The assessment result may also include recommendations concerning remedial measures that should be taken in order to remove the reservations or irregularities found. In the event of a negative collective suitability assessment, the inclusion of such a recommendation is mandatory. The Supervisory Board documents the process of the collective suitability assessment and its outcome.
7. At least once a year, the General Meeting approves the collective suitability assessment of the Supervisory Board according to the information as at the end of the financial year.
8. The Supervisory Board provides the PFSA with information on the assessment result, and in the event of a negative assessment – also with information on recommended remedial actions.

9. If the collective suitability assessment of the Management Board has given rise to recommendations concerning remedial measures, the Supervisory Board immediately undertakes and documents actions aimed at their implementation.

§ 11.

PROCESS OF PRIMARY INDIVIDUAL SUITABILITY ASSESSMENT OF A CANDIDATE FOR MEMBERSHIP OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

1. In the process of assessing suitability to serve as members of the Audit Committee, consideration is given to legal requirements as well as to good practice regarding: the composition and independence of the members of the Audit Committee; knowledge and skills in: accounting or auditing; the industry; independence; and having the appropriate knowledge and skills if the Audit Committee tasks are entrusted to the Supervisory Board.
2. The candidate for Audit Committee member completes the individual suitability assessment form – according to the current summary for the PFSA Methodology and with attachments confirming the information indicated in the form, including: that the candidate for Audit Committee member has the necessary knowledge and skills in the field of accounting and financial reporting, taking into account directional education, specialist certificates or qualifications, as well as the required minimum professional experience in a position directly related to financial accounting, management accounting or auditing. The set of materials referred to above is forwarded by the candidate for the Audit Committee member to the Expert Unit.
3. The Expert Unit verifies the documents received and, if necessary, asks the candidate to supplement them, as well as carries out a preliminary assessment.
4. Primary suitability of candidates to the Audit Committee is assessed by the Nomination Committee.

§ 12.

SECONDARY INDIVIDUAL SUITABILITY ASSESSMENT OF A MEMBER OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

1. In the cases referred to in § 6(6) point (6), point (8) or point (9), the Nomination Committee decides to initiate the process of secondary assessment of the individual suitability of a member of the Audit Committee of the Supervisory Board and requests the Expert Unit to carry out the necessary activities in this respect.
2. The Expert Unit, taking into account:
  - 1) an event leading to the need for a secondary assessment of individual suitability of a member of the Audit Committee,
  - 2) documentation of the prior assessment of the individual suitability of the member Audit Committee- determines the extent of the secondary assessment to be conducted.
3. The Expert Unit, taking into account the scope of the assessment of the individual suitability of an Audit Committee member established in the previous step, prepares a list of information and statements to be provided by the Audit Committee member. This list contains materials confirming that a member of the Audit Committee has the competences listed in § 11(2) above.
4. The Expert Unit selects the appropriate forms to be completed according to the current statement for the PFSA Methodology.

5. The Member of the Audit Committee prepares the information and statements indicated on the list provided by the Expert Unit. A member of the Audit Committee attaches the documents indicated in the questionnaires confirming the accuracy of the information contained in the documents.
6. The Expert Unit verifies whether the documents referred to in section 5 above have been correctly filled in and contain all the necessary information, including the identification of deficiencies requiring revision or completion and forwards the documents to the Audit Committee member for revision/completion.
7. The Expert Unit makes a preliminary assessment of the documents and information submitted or completed/ revised by a member of the Audit Committee in accordance with (5) or (6) above, as appropriate. The Expert Unit documents the assessment process by completing the sections in the questionnaires reserved for completion by the Bank. Afterwards, the Expert Unit provides the documentation to the Nomination Committee.
8. The Nomination Committee carries out a secondary assessment of individual suitability based on the available information held on the Audit Committee member – relevant to the assessment. A member of the Nomination Committee is not involved in their own secondary individual suitability assessment process.
9. In carrying out the secondary assessment of individual suitability, the Nomination Committee may be assisted by an external adviser.
10. The Nomination Committee prepares a recommendation on the secondary assessment of the individual suitability of the Supervisory Board member. If the outcome of the assessment is positive, the Nominations Committee recommends a positive assessment of the suitability of the Audit Committee member and that he/she remain on the Committee. In the event that the suitability assessment results in objections against an Audit Committee member that can be remedied through corrective measures, the Nomination Committee may recommend such measures. In the event of a negative secondary assessment of the individual suitability of an Audit Committee member, the Nomination Committee recommends changes to the composition of the Audit Committee. The Nomination Committee communicates its recommendation to the Supervisory Board.
11. The Supervisory Board provides the PFSA with information on the outcome of the secondary assessment of the individual suitability of an Audit Committee member and, in the event of a negative assessment, also information on the recommended remedial action.

§ 13.

ASSESSMENT OF THE COLLECTIVE SUITABILITY OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

1. Each and every time the composition of the Audit Committee changes, the Nomination Committee decides to initiate the assessment of the collective suitability of the Audit Committee and requests the Expert Unit to carry out the necessary actions in this regard.
2. The Expert Unit verifies the validity of individual assessments of the Audit Committee to the extent necessary to carry out a collective suitability assessment (i.e. within the scope of competences). If it is found that at least some of the information necessary to carry out the assessment of the Audit Committee's collective suitability is not available or has become outdated, the Expert Unit proceeds to complete the missing information. If this is not the case, the Expert Unit proceeds with the primary assessment of the collective suitability of the Audit Committee.

3. If the collective suitability assessment results from changes in the composition of the Audit Committee, the Expert Unit obtains the candidate assessment form from candidates to the Audit Committee – according to the current statement of the PFSA Methodology.
4. The Expert Unit carries out the primary collective assessment of the suitability of the Audit Committee and documents the assessment process by completing the Audit Committee’s collective suitability form – according to the current statement of the PFSA Methodology. Afterwards, the Expert Unit provides the documentation to the Nomination Committee.
5. The Nomination Committee prepares a recommendation for the Supervisory Board regarding the collective assessment of the Audit Committee. If the assessment result is positive, the Nomination Committee issues a positive collective suitability assessment of the Audit Committee in its current composition. In the event that the result of the collective suitability assessment is negative, the Nomination Committee recommends a change in the composition of the Audit Committee. The Nomination Committee communicates its recommendation to the Supervisory Board.
6. The Supervisory Board carries out the collective assessment of the suitability of the Audit Committee in the form of a resolution.

§ 14.

SUCCESSION PLANNING FOR BOARD MEMBERS

1. In the event of a vacancy on the Supervisory Board and, in particular, in the event of a sudden and unexpected situation, the Supervisory Board carries out an assessment of the collective suitability referred to in 10, including an assessment of the impact of the occurrence of the vacancy on the continued functioning of the supervisory body and its advisory committees and, if necessary, initiates action by the General Meeting to ensure the collective suitability of the Supervisory Board.
2. Until the members of the Supervisory Board are replenished, the body functions in a reduced composition. In the event that the composition of the Supervisory Board falls below the minimum specified in the Bank’s Articles of Association, an Extraordinary General Meeting is convened without delay in order to supplement the composition of the Supervisory Board at least to the minimum specified in the Bank’s Articles of Association.
3. In the event that the occurrence of a vacancy on the Supervisory Board reduces the number of members of the Nomination Committee below the minimum specified in the Rules of Procedure of the Nomination Committee - the Supervisory Board carries out the collective suitability assessment referred to in § 10, disregarding the recommendation of the Nomination Committee.
4. The members of the Supervisory Board are selected from a group of potential candidates who may be nominated by, among others, the Management Board, the Supervisory Board and the Shareholders.

§ 15.

DIVERSITY POLICY

1. The Diversity Policy defines the goals and criteria of diversity, including but not limited to, in such areas AS gender, field of education, specialist knowledge, age and professional experience, as well as indicates the date and method of how the achievement of these goals should be monitored. When assessing candidates for the Supervisory Board, the Bank takes into account a wide set of features and competences required to be a member of the Supervisory Board.
2. The Bank endeavours to ensure diversity of the Supervisory Board, in particular, in the scope of education and professional experience, gender and age of members of the Supervisory Board, and to the extent ensuring a broad spectrum of views of the supervisory body.

3. In selecting the composition of the Supervisory Board, the Bank aims to achieve a balance in gender representation on this body, taking into account a minimum gender minority of 30%.
4. When assessing the diversity of members of the Supervisory Board in terms of their education and professional experience, criteria such as: place (country, region) in which education or professional experience is obtained, education profile, university degree, specialisation in a specific field, type of entities in which the candidate has held the function or has been employed and employment time may be taken into consideration.
5. The Bank recruits members of the Supervisory Board having regard in the first place to the criteria set out in Section 4 above, necessary for the proper functioning and suitability of the Supervisory Board as a whole.
6. Shaping the composition of the Supervisory Board should not take place with the sole aim of increasing diversity at the expense of the functioning and suitability of the Supervisory Board as a whole or the suitability of individual members.

§ 16.

INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTATION OBLIGATIONS

1. In order to document the suitability assessment process, the HR Division archives documentation on the assessment process, including questionnaires and assessment results.
2. Immediately after the appointment of the Supervisory Board or a change in its composition, the Bank provides the PFSA with information on the composition of the Supervisory Board or a change in its composition, respectively, together with information on whether the members of the Supervisory Board concerned by the information meet the suitability requirements set out in Article 22aa of the Banking Law Act.
3. The Bank immediately informs the PFSA of a negative outcome of the primary individual assessment, the secondary individual assessment of a member of Supervisory Board and the collective assessment of the suitability of the Supervisory Board and of the actions taken in connection with these assessments.
4. The Bank announces, in a publicly available manner, information that members of the Supervisory Board meet the suitability requirements specified in Article 22aa of the Banking Law Act.

§ 17.

PRINCIPLES OF DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING

1. The rules for the development of Supervisory Board members are set out in a separate regulation adopted by the Bank: “Development Policy for Members of the Management Board and Supervisory Board of Alior Bank S.A.”
2. The development activities set out in the regulation referred to in section 1 above are coordinated by the HR Division.

§ 18.

PRINCIPLES OF AMENDMENTS AND REVIEWS

- 1. Controls and independent monitoring of their compliance are regulated by the Instruction issued by the Managing Director of the HR Division.*
- 2. In cases not covered by this Policy, the provisions of the Methodology are applicable.*
- 3. The Nomination Committee monitors the effectiveness of the Bank's application of this Policy, including to the extent indicated in the Diversity Policy described in §14, and reviews its content and implementation.*
